To Whom it May Concern:

It has come to our attention that various addresses, within North Dakota, are being used when the Internal Revenue Service is listed as a creditor in a bankruptcy petition.

We are writing to request your cooperation in ensuring that your database contains the correct address for North Dakota bankruptcy cases. Also, we ask that you only list Internal Revenue Service as a creditor when a debt has been identified, and that you discontinue the process of sending additional notices on paper or via fax.

To ensure that the Internal Revenue Service is properly notified on North Dakota bankruptcy cases, and that collection action is promptly suspended on your client's delinquent taxes, we request that in the future cases you please use only the following creditor name and address exactly as follows:

Internal Revenue Service
P. O. Box 2461
Fargo, North Dakota 58108-2461

If you have any questions, please contact Marilyn Jamieson at (701) 239-5400 ext. 269. Thank you for your cooperation in this matter.

Sincerely yours,
